Morning The Pearl

Early Sunday Morning, by Barry Denenberg is an amazing book that should be read by everyone. The book represents a diary that has been written by a young American girl named Amber Billows. The part that I like most about this book is how it is based off of the attack on Pearl Harbor. This book really inspired me to love history.

Denenberg. Amber Billows (born May 9, 1929) was the daughter of Al and Anne Billows. She was also the younger sister of Andy, who was three years older than her. Amber disliked that her family moved so often for her father's job since she had a hard time making friends. In November 1941, the family moved to Oahu, Hawaii. There she ...
